

Like the disciples gathered around Jesus at the Cenacle for the Last Supper, we are invited to share in the mystery of the Eucharist. Encounters at the Cenacle is a learning tool for groups based on the Foundational Theological Document, The Eucharist, God's Gift for the Life of the World.

Ideal for young adult groups but also for parishes, movements and religious communities, it can even serve for personal reflection.

$18⁹⁵

Encounters at the Cenacle includes:

His Eminence
Cardinal Marc Ouellet,
Archbishop of Québec
and primate of the church in Canada

- A workbook detailing the process and the outline for each encounter, including discussion questions.
- A DVD with ten 15-minute videos, one for each encounter

First, certain aspects of the Eucharistic mystery are highlighted by His Eminence, Cardinal Marc Ouellet, Archbishop of Québec and primate of the Church in Canada and by His Grace, Archbishop Thomas Collins, Archbishop of Toronto.

Concrete applications are then presented by experts and witnesses:

Sr. Antoniana Maria of the Trinity, S.V., Sr. Gill Goulding, C.I., Theologian at Regis College, Mark Mignella, a Catholic high school teacher, and Fr. Thomas Rosica, C.S.B. of Salt and Light Television.
