A Time for VITALITY!

On November 16th and 17th we will gather at Loyola High School to explore and celebrate the vitality of our parish communities with the third bi-annual Parish Vitality Conference. Guided by the theme, "Leading the Way Together" we will welcome keynote speaker Fr. James Mallon Episcopal Vicar for Parish Renewal and Leadership Support from the Archdiocese of Halifax-Yarmouth and bestselling author of Divine Renovation.

Friday night we will celebrate our English Catholic Community with the ESCC Rally from 5-7 p.m. (look for our SASMAD/Pastoral Home Care booth!) and the Bishop Crowley Memorial Award followed by the keynote address by Fr. Mallon at 8 p.m. Saturday will bring another address by Fr. Mallon and a panel discussion about one Montreal parish's experience implementing some new ideas and approaches. Breakout workshops on a variety of subjects will be held in the afternoon, followed by a Mass at 4:30 at St. Ignatius of Loyola parish. French translation of the keynotes and panel discussions will be made available. Register soon at <http://www.diocesemontreal.org/blog/parishvitality/>

Have you had your picture taken yet for your SASMAD identification badge? Have you had your police verification? If not, please contact 514-925-4300 ext. 354 or your parish coordinator.

Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn,
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We shall remember them"*
